SPRING HAS SPRUNG WITH NEWS AT LEGACY TRAVEL

Award, New Hire and New Certifications for Plano's Leading Travel Agency

Plano, TX (March 20, 2006) – Legacy Travel has been awarded a “Top Producer 2005” award by Karisma Hotels and Resorts (www.karismahotels.com), placing a close second for the State of Texas. Karisma Resort is best known for its El Dorado Seaside Suites, which was chosen by Forbes Magazine as one of the most romantic resorts in the world.

Legacy Travel has added a new Travel Consultant to its growing team. Candi Hollingsed recently joined the agency from a uniform supply leader. Candi has already been helping many of Legacy Travel's customers book the perfect trip or cruise for 2006.

In other team news, Terrah Rominger just completed the “College of Disney Knowledge,” an online course that makes Terrah a certified expert on all Disney trips.

Also, Marty Boehlke has been officially named an “Elite Vallarta Nayarit Specialist,” after completing a familiarization trip to the Mexican area which is currently undergoing a growth in popularity with North Texan travelers.

About Legacy Travel

Owned by Philip and Cathi Banks since 1989, Legacy Travel (www.legacytravel.com) is one of the few remaining brick-and-mortar travel agencies, building a solid customer base due to their deep knowledge of North Texans' preferred destinations and having the ability to create unique travel experiences for their customers. Legacy Travel is located at 2929 Custer Road, Suite 305, at W. Parker Boulevard.
